WHARF AND WAVE.

DIAMOND HEAD—JUNE 28, 10 P.M.
—Weather, clear; wind, fresh N.E.

The Iwalani came in from Kauai yesterday afternoon.

The Kilauea Hou leaves for ports on Hawaii this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

Captain Cook will command the schooner Kaulilua when she departs for Fannings Island.

The bark Albert is about discharged. She will be anchored in the stream to await orders.

The schooner Olga moved to Allen & Robinson's wharf yesterday to finish discharging.

The schooner O. M. Kellogg is on her way to this port from Gray's Harbor with a cargo of lumber.

The schooner Norma may be chartered to carry the tobacco, left here by the Morning Star, to the South Sea trading ports.

The Likelike arrived from Hawaii yesterday with 6597 bags of sugar, most of which was transferred to the Liaguno.

The U. S. S. Mohican is visiting different ports of British Columbia testing anthracite and soft coals found there and in Northwest.

An island schooner came in yesterday with 2121 bags of sugar for the S. G. Wilder. The latter vessel leaves for San Francisco today.

The Panama Railroad has chartered the new whaleback steamer City of Everett to carry freight between Panama and San Francisco.

Several island steamers will arrive during the day with dark sugar for the ship Manuel Llaguno.
Captain Small expects to get away tomorrow.

Captain Simerson brought the few hours ahead of time. On her way down the vessel ran into a gale and lost a sail. She brought 4765 bags of sugar besides other freight.

Captain Garland of the Morning Star left port on Thursday without the ship's papers. The vessel returned yesterday morning and anchored outside. The documents were sent out and the vessel resumed her journey. At first it was thought that her engines had broken down.

It frequently happens that well-meaning people adopt and are guided by dangerous maxims. Satan has a large volume of maxims and proverbs which are exceedingly harmful, because while seeming to be safe and good they are worse than bad on account of the half-truths they contain. Of the many of this character perhaps no one is more frequently quoted and adopted than the fatal "Of two evils, choose the lesser."
Of two evils, choose—neither.
The word requires total abstinence from every form of evil. And this has reference as directly to political parties that are wrong as to any other wrong. A half loaf is no better than a whole loaf if both are fatally poisonous. The question of America's drink curse is not one of mere expediency about which we may honestly differ, but like slavery, a question of right and wrong. Such a question cannot be compromised, for concession in any degree is an abandonment of the principle involved. The unholy traffic in intoxicants is as truly a sin against both God and man as slavery ever was.
This traffic has the patronage of both the old political parties, for the one as much as the other has sold itself to do evil. Our hope, therefore, is not in either, but in the party of whatever name that dares to beard the lion in his den. The number is fast growing as the light intensifies of those who "have been duped for the last time," as a certain minister said to the writer since the recent election. The consistent course is not a choice between the two old party, evils but of neither.

FITS CURED

(From U. S. Journal of Medicine.)
Prof. W. H. Peck, who makes a specialty of Epilepsy, has without doubt treated and cured more cases than any living Physician; his success is astonishing. We have heard of cases of 20 years' standing cured by him.
He publishes valuable work on this disease which he sends with a large bottle of his absolute cure, free to any sufferer who may send his P.O. and Express address. We advise anyone wishing a cure to address,
